

Position Announcement

Head Varsity Football Coach

Garces Memorial High School Bakersfield, California

Garces Memorial High School, in Bakersfield, California, is currently seeking a qualified applicant for the position of Head Varsity Football Coach for the 2010 high school football season.

Founded in 1947, Garces Memorial is a Catholic, co-educational college preparatory high school. The current enrollment is approximately 700 students. For more detailed information about Garces Memorial, see the school's web site:

www.garces.org

Salary is negotiable based on the applicant's education and experience. A teaching position is possible.

Preference in hiring will be given to applicants with the following qualifications:

1. Exceptional coaching experience
2. Excellent leadership ability
3. Proven team management & organizational skills

Applications: All those interested in this position must submit a "Coach/Teacher Application" form and all requested support documents by December 1, 2009. The employment application form is available on the Garces web site at www.garces.org.

Submit Your Application: Please send a complete copy to:
Athletic Department
PO Box 3612
Bakersfield, CA 93385

Or by e-mail to:
employment@garces.org

You are encouraged to return your application and support documents electronically.

To request more information, please contact: employment@garces.org